SonicWall NSA Series High Availability Promotion

End-of-Year Holiday Promotion starts November 1, 2018. Only while supplies last.

Give your current SonicWall customers up to 30 percent off a SonicWall NSA High Availability (HA) firewall appliance PLUS an NSA Expanded License at no additional cost.

Grow your revenue while giving your customers the gifts of business continuity, load balancing, clustering and more at an incredible savings.

Promotion Summary

- Eligible firewalls include NSA 2600/3600/4600/5600/6600. Discount varies by model
- Expanded license upgrades the firewall to support Stateful HA, BGP support, Active/Active DPI and Active/Active Clustering between appliances (depending on individual model)
- HA appliances cannot be used without a primary firewall already in place
- Promotion available while supplies last

- Promo Expanded License SKU can be added only to orders with an NSA xx00 HA Unit – Promo Expanded License SKU not to be sold separately
- For current SonicWall customers only

Promotion SKUs are available for fulfillment via distribution.
